

CHANGE IN THE GENERAL MANAGEMENT: DETLEV L. HEIRINGHOFF SUCCEEDS HANS-PETER RICHTER

Long-serving EVI Audio General Manager Hans-Peter Richter Retired on July 1, 2004. His Successor is Detlev L. Heiringhoff, a Graduate in Business Administration.

Straubing, Germany (July 2004): At the works meeting on July 1st, 2004, Hans-Peter Richter, general manager with the successful pro audio company since 1981, took his leave of the workforce. Mr. Richter began with the company in 1973, as general manager of the TV-equipment dispatch department. Two years later, he was appointed Deputy General Manager of Dynacord and Echolette. From 1981 onwards, he occupied the post of General Manager of Finance, Materials Administration and Production in which he is succeeded by Detlev L. Heiringhoff.

Detlev L. Heiringhoff

Mr. Heiringhoff graduated in business administration from the University of Dortmund and began his career in logistics. After three years, he switched to finance, working as a management trainee with Degussa AG of Frankfurt am Main. For three years, the 49-year-old served as group leader of the works control section within the head office. In 1992, he was given full responsibility for a division active worldwide.

From 1994 to 1996, Mr. Heiringhoff served as Administrative Director of Peek & Cloppenburg KG of Düsseldorf. After a further three years as Head of Accountancy at Telecom AG in Frankfurt, he moved to Munich to take up the post of General Manager Finance Europe with Suzuki International Europe.

Since the beginning of this year, Detlev L. Heiringhoff has also been General Manager of Finance with EVI Audio GmbH in Straubing, the post in which he succeeds Hans-Peter Richter.
